

SOCIAL MEDIA MANAGEMENT

refers to the effective management of your brand communications and engagement with your target audience and customers through social media platforms.

If you want to grow your business through social media channels, you would want to hire a full time hire a social media virtual assistant. The dedicated staff could monitor page interactions, organic promotions, paid ad performance, and social media calendar across channels.

Social Media Managers can also create short-form content, captions, and visuals. However, if you have multiple social media channels, you would want to allocate content creation to copywriters, graphic designers, or video editors instead.

Advantages Of Social Media Management

- Boost brand awareness
- Build customer relations
- Increase inbound traffic
- Increase sales
- Improve SEO rankings
- Cost-effective marketing strategy

Are You Ready To Hire A Social Media Manager?

Here's a quick assessment to check your status.

- I don't have extra hours to work on monitoring and interacting in our social media channels. I prefer to focus my time on business development and/or operations.
- I don't know the strategic and technical marketing methods in each social media channel.
- I need a Social Media Manager who can plan, monitor, respond to comments, and analyze interactions and sales from each of our social media channels.
- I want a Social Media Manager who can represent our brand voice consistently.
- I want a Social Media Manager who can assist in building and/or managing our content strategy. I don't have much time to conceptualize and publish relevant content.

- I want a Social Media Manager who can provide superb customer service.
- I need a Social Media Manager who can report the analytics from each social media channel.
- I am launching hire a social media virtual assistant this year. I need help in publishing social media content.
- I want to increase our sales so I need quality and high-converting social media posts.
- I need a Social Media Management Service at a reasonable cost.

How Can SMART VAs Help?

SMART VAs are a collective body of creative and passionate virtual professionals who can help you get the job done for your business. We can manage your social media account and online campaigns by posting relevant content backed with strategic and creative copywriting. We can also take care of your daily customer service by responding to comments and messages to maintain excellent response and high engagement ratings for each of your accounts.